CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Christopher Benny, one of the young men of this church, expects to leave on the Lurline Tuesday for Kimberlin Heights, Tenn., where he enters school to prepare himself to be a minister of the gospel, and in view of this fact and in recognition of the significance of this undertaking, Minister Peters' sermon subject tomorrow morning will be "The Church and the Ministry of Christianity in the Progress of Humanity." While it is not the province of the church to set apart a young man to his life-work in advance of his preparation for it, it is entirely proper for the church to make some manifestation of interest in his undertaking, and this is what will be done in the morning service tomorrow. The members of the church are especially invited to be present.

The Bible school opens at 9:45. In the afternoon at 3 the Sloan mission meets under the direction of Mr. John Hills. The young people's meeting will be held at the church at 6:30, but there will be no evening sermon, the church uniting in the union service at the Bijou theater.

ARMY AND NAVY NOTES

The Senate has concurred in the House amendments to the bill changing the name of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service to the Public Health Service and increasing the pay of various officers in that service.

The bill provides the surgeon general shall receive $6,000, the assistant surgeon general $4,000, and in general increases the pay of the officers lower in grade of the Public Health Service.

It was brought out in the discussion on the floor that the bill is intended to take the place of the bill for the proposed bureau of public health or a department of health. Senator Martin of Virginia took this view of it.

Col. George Andrews, recently nominated to be adjutant general of the army, assumed his new duties.

He has been in conference with the chief of staff and other officers of the War Department for several days, and it is expected that a number of changes will be announced in the personnel of the adjutant general's department in a few days.

The changes announced several days ago transfer Col. William A. Simpson from Chicago to New York, where he will be adjutant general of the Eastern Division. He is to be succeeded in the Central Division by Colonel H. O. S. Helstead.

Coy. Henry P. McCain, who has been acting as adjutant general has relinquished his duties to become adjutant general of the Philippine Division.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Seattle Construction and Dry Dock Company has, for the second time, reduced its bid for the construction of the little gunboat Monocacy, Secretary Meyer finding that the bid is still several thousand dollars in excess of the highest navy yard bid, has reaffirmed his original decision to give the contract for the construction of his boat to the Mare Island navy yard at its bid of $114,000.

In response to an inquiry on the subject, Secretary Meyer has announced that some time next fall or winter he will show the southern people the magnificent Atlantic fleet at as many of the principal harbors of the south Atlantic and Gulf Coasts as the dreadnaughts can enter or even approach within reasonable distance. On the list of places to be visited are Charleston, Savannah, Pensacola, New Orleans, Mobile and Galveston.

The Navy Department is informed that Capt. William B. Newman, U. S. N., retired, died at Woodland, Uster county, N. Y., August 9. He was a native of New York and entered the navy in October, 1861. During the Civil War he served on the U. S. S. Brandywine, Southfield, North Carolina and Wachusett. He was retired for age in November, 1896, and during the Spanish war was on duty at the New York navy yard.

Col. Daniel M. Appell, Medical Corps, was today relieved from duty at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., and ordered to proceed to Chicago for duty as chief surgeon of the Central Division. He will relieve Lieut. Col. William B. Baister, Medical Corps, who has been granted leave of absence.

Congressman William Francis Murray, of Boston, Mass., the baby of Champ Clark's big Democratic family in Washington, has returned from Dorchester, Mass., where he was married to Miss Mary A. Lappen.

His bride did not come to Washington with him, but went to Europe. In explaining the divided honeymoon, Congressman Murray said:

"My wife had planned to go to Europe. I decided, however, it would be better for her to go, as Mrs. Murray than as Miss Lappen, so we were married. The announcement of our engagement was made this spring. We were to have married in the fall."

After visiting London, Paris and other large Eastern cities, Mrs. Murray will return to Boston about the middle of October. She will be joined there by her husband, and the delayed honeymoon completed.

Congressman Murray would not say today where he would spend his honeymoon, other than that "we will take an extensive trip."

When Congress convenes again in December, Congressman Murray will bring his bride to Washington.

CHINESE SCHOOL ENDS SUMMER SESSION

Splendid Record Made. More Than 200 Pupils Attending Lessons

The Wah Mun Chinese School, which is located on Kukui Street, closed its summer session yesterday afternoon. The school has certainly made a record of which it can well be proud, judging from the number of Chinese boys and girls who took pains to learn more about their mother tongue even during the hot summer months. The school had an enrollment of over two hundred students. Figures showed that there were over one hundred and sixty boys and about forty girls. The school children are of ages ranging from six to sixteen, and some of them are the children of the most prominent Chinese in the city.

The Chinese have recognized the importance of the Chinese language as well as the English. It was with the sole idea of keeping up their mother tongue, which has many charms not known to outsiders, that the Chinese merchants of Hawaii have so generously supported this institution. The fact that many of the youngsters have deserted the baseball diamond or the beach and that many a girl has forsaken the sewing machine justifies the existence of this institution.

The administration of this school is placed in the hands of a Board of Trustees. The officers are highly gratified not only over the enrollment, but are especially pleased with the benefits which the young Chinese students are able to get right here, thus saving the trouble of making trips to China. The men serving on the Board of Trustees are Chu Gem, manager of Quong Sam Kee, president; C. K. Ai, manager of City Mill Co., vice president; Lung Mun Chew of L. Ah Leong Co., secretary; and Goo Kam Fook, manager of Kong Sang Yuen Co., treasurer.

The Wah Mun School was supposed to close today, but the faculty has decided upon something even better in the nature of a training party to Kaili Valley. Nine o'clock this morning was the time agreed upon to begin the hike. The party was chaperoned by the whole instructional force of five, consisting of Messrs. Chang (2), Goo, Young and Wong.

After a vacation of one week, the Wah Mun School will resume its sessions for the fall. Instruction will be given in the afternoon so that there won't be any conflict with the work of the public schools.

ray will return to Boston about the middle of October. She will be joined there by her husband, and the delayed honeymoon completed.

Congressman Murray would not say today where he would spend his honeymoon, other than that "we will take an extensive trip."

"AS WE SEE 'EM' IS LATEST LOCAL ART WORK

"Hawaiian Islands As We See 'Em," is the title of a most artistic book issued by W. E. Allison and just published from the illustrating and commercial printing department of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

This volume takes a good number of the prominent citizens of Honolulu and deals with some of their specialties through the medium of the photographer and the cartoonist. It is a new idea for Honolulu and seems to have taken well. The subjects are well worked up and the art work as well as the finish given by the printer make a very refined and attractive work of Mike Randall of the Star-Bulletin staff.

Only a limited number have been printed, the very few over the total subscribed will be on sale at Arleigh's book store.
